

INTRODUCTION TO HEALTH PROFESSIONS

Pierce County Careers Connection Dual Credit Articulation Agreement

Upon completion of a full year of high school or equivalent to the following competencies:

- Demonstrate Proficiency In Privacy of Health Information
 - standards for electronic transactions of health information and claims
 - security of electronic health information
 - national identifiers for the parties in health care transactions

- HIV
 - Demonstrate proficiency in etiology and epidemiology of HIV
 - transmission and infection control
 - testing and counseling
 - clinical manifestations and treatment of HIV
 - legal, ethical and psychosocial issues of HIV

- Legal Issues
 - Demonstrate and understanding of the various laws that affect the healthcare industry in general.
 - Demonstrate an understanding of the various laws that affect the allied health professional.
 - Examine the various ethical issues in healthcare today.

- Field Study
 - Successfully participate in an allied health field study which includes site visits to profession-specific sites
 - Interview health care personnel
 - Research job opportunities
 - Provide pay scale information

- Successfully complete CPR training for health professionals.

A student earning a "B" grade or better may earn college credit at the following college:

College	Course	Credits
Clover Park Technical College	CAH 103	5

Created: 6/2006

Reviewed: 11/2016